EASTERN AND SOUTHERN AFRICAN TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT BANK ('TDB')

Background

Established in 1985, the Eastern and Southern African Trade and Development Bank (TDB) is a multilateral, treaty-based development financial institution, with assets of close to US$ 5.6 billion. The Bank's mandate is to finance and foster trade, regional economic integration and sustainable development through trade finance, project and infrastructure finance, asset management and business advisory services.

TDB has 37 shareholders, including 22 African Member States, 2 non-regional member countries, and institutional investors including the African Development Bank, People's Bank of China, OFID of OPEC, BADEA, as well as several pension funds, and insurance companies.

Over the past 6 years, the Bank has enjoyed several rating upgrades, its capital and funding have increased by over 400% a result of which over 1.1 million jobs have been created. The Bank is now investment grade-rated and one of the leading financial institutions in the region.
