of 2:22.43 in the 200-yard individual medley, and Whittaker finishing first in the 100-yard butterfly with a time of 1:03.25. Milburn, who doesn't normally swim the 100-yard butterfly, placed second in the event at 1:06.16.

"They were definitely excited to swim tonight," Rhoten said, "especially since they got to choose their events tonight." That also included Kampwerth, who finished with a second-place time of 1:14.11 in the 100-yard breaststroke, with Chen finishing first in the event with a time of 1:12.65. Pera Onal placed fourth in the 100-yard freestyle with a time of 59.61. The 200-yard freestyle relay team of Whittaker, Janson, Kampwerth and Milburn finished with a first-place time of 1:45.94. "I'm so proud of our times, especially our split times," Milburn said. "We put ourselves in a great position for sectionals." With this being a six-team meet, there was more time and breaks in between events, which is something Rhoten and the swimmers were thankful to have. "One of the hardest parts of high school swimming is the dual meets," Rhoten said, "which is a lot of swimming in a short amount of time. We don't have to worry about back-to-back events, and this mimics the layout of sectionals." The 400-yard freestyle relay team of Taylor Wilkerson, Henley Mason, Chloe Harrison and Onal ended the meet with a first-place finish in 4:01.05. "We had some really great swims," Rhoten said. Milburn added, "the fact that everyone put out their absolute best was important." The IHSA Sectionals are scheduled for Nov. 6 at the Chuck Fruit Aquatic Center, with the time to still be announced, and the IHSA State Finals to follow on Nov. 12.

what they're doing because if you take something away, they have answers. You have to be assignment sound on defense and tackle well.

"Their defense is quick and physical. They have 10 seniors on defense. Having seniors, those kids understand that this could be the end of their careers for football and they play like it."

In the playoffs for a fourth straight postseason, South Elgin has won 15 straight games, including a 6-0 mark in COVID-shortened 2020-21 season. The Storm last lost in the second round of the 2019 postseason.

This season, South Elgin has outscored its opposition 430-29. It has allowed just four touchdowns – one each in four games – and posted five shutouts. The defense is surrendering 3.2 points per game – second-lowest in 8A – while the offense is averaging 47.8 points – highest in 8A.

"It's like they have eight linebackers on defense. They can all run and hit. They also have three pretty good cover guys," Martin said. "They don't take too many mistakes."

South Elgin is coming off a 70-0 win over West Chicago in Week 9. The Storm rushed for 303 yards and threw for 178 yards.

The champions of the Upstate Eight, the Storm's opponents went a combined 39-42 – Edwardsville's opponents went 38-42.

South Elgin plays on a grass field and the current forecast calls for rain.

"I don't think it's a big deal," Martin said of the playing surface. "If it's muddy and sloppy and raining, it can be a big deal."

The Tigers enter the postseason on a two-game losing streak with a 58-0 loss to East St. Louis and 48-21 loss to CBC.

On the season, Edwardsville is averaging 30.7 points and surrendering an average of 28 points.

Quarterback Jake Curry is 71 of 169 throwing for 946 yards with 11 touchdowns and six interceptions. He also has 263 rushing yards and three touchdowns on 76 carries.

The top rushing threat is Jordan Bush, who leads the team with 437 yards and seven touchdowns on 78 carries.

Wide receivers Kellen Brnfre (23 catches, 280 yards, three touchdowns), Beau Brandt (14 catches, 200 yards, two touchdowns) and Jordan Brooks (10 catches, 188 yards) and tight end lose Epenesa (10 catches, 213 yards, three touchdowns) will likely figure into the passing game.

Defensively, EHS is led by Dalton Brown with 54 tackles, a fumble recovery and an interception.

Nasim Cairo has 47 tackles and a team-high five sacks, while Colton Carstens has 47 tackles with two sacks and two fumble recoveries and Evan Holderer has 42 tackles with a sack and two interceptions.

This is the 10th consecutive postseason for Edwardsville, which went 1-1 in 2019 with a 44-17 win over St. Charles East before losing 34-17 to Minooka.

Under Martin over the last 10 seasons, the Tigers are 6-3 in postseason games in Chicagoland.

"We have played good competition and our kids should feel confident," Martin said, "but tomorrow's another day. You have to go out and execute."

Matt Kamp | For the Intelligencer Edwardsville quarterback Jake Curry fires a throw down the field in the first half against CBC.

Crites Creepy Castle

The Crites family have enjoyed decorating their house every year since their children were very young, and have continued the tradition for their Grandkids. Each year new pieces are added and now their display spills over to their side yard. Mrs. Crites is a teacher and loves for her students to come by and take in the fun too.
