

New InFocus 70-inch Mondopad is here.

INF7020

INF7021

Fully-integrated and compatible, it's INF5520A's big brother

The new 70-inch Mondopad (INF7021) sports a clean, integrated look from front to back. It also utilizes the same PC and has the same 5-point multi-touch capabilities as the 55-inch model.

Differences and Benefits

INF7020	INF7021	Benefits
2 optical touch sensors and Dual touch	4 optical touch sensors and 5-point touch	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Smoother, quicker and more accurate response to swipes and other gestures • More accurate annotation for cleaner handwriting and better touch recognition • Excellent dual-user writing performance • Compatible with more advanced multi-touch-enabled applications and uses – now and in the future
Removable PC	Integrated, re-moveable PC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PC is swappable between the INF7021 and INF5520A
One speaker bar	Two speaker bars with new mounting choices	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two speaker bars can be mounted underneath the display or on the sides of the display
Fewer inputs	More, accessible inputs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The INF7021 has 4 USB inputs that are easy to access on the side of the display, plus one additional input on top for the camera • INF7021 has two HDMI inputs versus none on the INF7020

Other items to note:

- Other specification differences: Refresh rate (60 Hz vs. 120 Hz), Viewing angle (80° vs 176°), Pixel pitch (0.63mm vs. 0.802mm), and other differences in dimensions and weights. See datasheets for details.